According to information dated 24 August 1947

25X1X [redacted] during the past year [redacted] elements who are planning to invest large sums of capital for the installation of some blast furnaces in the El Musel coastal zone (near Gijon, Province of Oviedo) have visited the industrial zone of Asturias. [redacted] states that the plan appears to consist of the installation of a complete system of blast furnaces, with all the related industries, for the utilization of residues, the extraction of gas, etc. In addition, [redacted] states that the Duro-Felguera Factory is apparently interested in this plan and that this same firm had proposed to carry out a similar plan last year.
